

Dare Quarterly

April-June 2020

Dear Friends,

I recently wrote a blog post titled, “Six Month Check In.” It’s not long, but in it I ask the question, “How’s your heart?” And as I write this update today, I’d like to ask you the same question. So, how’s your heart? If you’re in a similar space as me, it’s been all over the radar over the past three months. Recently, things have been more clear to me. Clear in that I need to trust Jesus more. Clear in that I know what I need to be doing.

First and foremost, I need to be spending more time with Jesus in prayer and the Word than what I give to social media. It’s easy to scroll endlessly, or read blog posts, news articles, or urgent news bulletins in hopes of staying updated. But that’s not the most important use of my time.

One of the things I encouraged our blog readers to do was to focus on the power, love, and sound mind given to us by God detailed in 1 Timothy 1:7. These are gifts from God to equip us for such times. We shouldn’t neglect them.

I want to encourage you with the same truth. Instead of mediating on the state of things, meditate on the truths of the Word. Turn your attention to what God says, worship Him, and pour out your heart to Him. (Psalm 62:5-8; 1 Peter 5:7; Psalm 94:19)

On the Blog: (visit dareministries.com/dareblog to view)

Six Month Check In

A new series on Identity

An encouragement for these times of uncertainty

A chance to revisit your 2020 goals (Get SMART About Your Goals) and values (Core Values) for the second half of the year

Truth in Two:

Lots of great videos are up on YouTube, Instagram, and Facebook. Check it out and subscribe today!

College Ministry:

Our college ministry has been going well and is growing. We are thankful to be able to walk beside these young people and be a support and encouragement as they navigate these years. For information on our meetings, please email college@dareministries.com.

Dare Conference:

At this time, we are still planning on hosting our annual Dare Conference near the end of August. We will adjust as needed, but are praying that we are still able to reach out to young people at this crucial time of their lives. And what better season to be an encouragement to them than a time in which everything feels so uncertain? Would you partner with us financially to help us host this conference?

Uganda Youth Conference:

At this time we have suspended our plans to physically go to Uganda in December. We will be working with our national partners to put on a virtual conference, and any funds donated will be used for this purpose. You can donate online or by mailing a check to PO Box 26443, Colorado Springs, CO 80936. Please include a note for Uganda Youth Conference

Support Uganda:

As shared on our social media channels, our partners in Uganda are greatly struggling to provide food for their families and many are hunting rats just to survive. As the shutdown has hurt many small businesses and families here, many in Uganda have been unable to tend to their own farms due to government imposed lockdowns. Please consider a donation to help support Ugandans during this extremely difficult time. Donations can be made online at or checks can be mailed to PO Box 26443, Colorado Springs, CO 80936. Please include a note for Uganda Support.”

Prayer:

Above all, we eagerly ask for your prayers. This season is different and challenging in many ways. Please pray that the Lord would provide financially for the work which He has called us to. Please pray for strength and endurance to complete the work. And please pray for hearts and minds to be transformed as they interact with the truth of God's love.

Blessings in Christ,

Sarah Rieger
Chief Operations Officer
Dare Ministries